

BRITISH HOLD UP TWO MORE SHIPS

Government Files Protest
Against Seizure of Vessels
Carrying Coal to Mexican Ports.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The state department took up officially Tuesday the seizure by the British cruiser Newcastle off the west coast of Mexico of the British ships Lowther Range and Banksdale, sailing under an American charter, laden with coal and bound for Mexican ports.

Officials here understand that Great Britain became nervous over a suspicion that this coal would eventually be transferred to German cruisers in the Pacific. The same question was up about six weeks ago when Great Britain held up a steamer off San Francisco which she had reason to believe was in communication for coal with a German cruiser then lying off San Francisco harbor.

The seized vessels were under charter by J. J. Moore & Co. of San Francisco and the Lowther Range was bound from Norfolk, Va., for the ports of Guaymas and Mazatlan, Mexico, the consignees being the Southern Pacific company and "Martinez," a Mexican merchant. One of the peculiar circumstances of the seizures is that the Newcastle coaled from the Lowther Range and then sent her to the port of Esquimalt in British Columbia, with a prize crew on board. The Banksdale has also been sent to Esquimalt with a prize crew.

The J. J. Moore company has protested to the state department. The seizures were made on the high seas. The state department has telegraphed to its agents at Mazatlan, Guaymas and Esquimalt for information. If the facts warrant it the state department says it will make protest and demand the release of the two vessels.

One of the German cruisers which will need coal very soon is the Geir which has been at Honolulu for about ten days undergoing repairs. She will soon have to be interned or endeavor to escape the Japanese and British cruisers which are on the lookout for her dash from Honolulu.

NURSE TAKES CHILD; WAS TO LOSE JOB

Believed That She Took Girl Rather Than Be Separated From Her.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 28.—Virginia, the four-year-old daughter of Harry H. Gerhard, a St. Louis manufacturer, formerly of Bonham, Texas, disappeared Monday morning with Julia Krasusky, a nurse who had cared for the child ever since she was born. The nurse was to be discharged Sunday and she is believed to have started back to Texas with the child rather than be separated from her.

A clue to the pair was received in a postal card Tuesday to Gerhard from Mantion Davis, Mr. Gerhard's attorney, who said he met the child on a Rock Island train near Clinton, Mo., yesterday afternoon with her nurse. They were presumably bound for Kansas City. All outgoing trains are being watched.

JAPS WAITING FOR SHIP

Cruiser Geier Will Have to Fight It
She Leaves Port.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—The big Japanese cruiser Hizen is hovering three miles outside Honolulu waiting to pounce upon the little German cruiser Geier as soon as she clears port and reaches the high seas, according to officers of the Matson Navigation company's liner Matsonia, which reached port Tuesday from Honolulu and Hilo.

As the Matsonia was steaming from Honolulu her passengers saw the Japanese cruiser waiting patiently for her prey. It is expected that the Geier will be compelled to put to sea shortly, her repairs being nearly completed.

A New Principle in Complexion Treatment

Most creams are injurious when used habitually. They clog the pores and eventually form a permanent, soggy, scaling film which interferes with eliminative action and makes the skin sickly and pasty. There is an application—mercerized wax—which acts upon an entirely different principle. While perfectly harmless, it has the peculiar property of removing by absorption the dead and dead particles of sebum-skin, as well as unhealthy matter in the pores. Thus it takes away from instead of adding to the complexion, effecting in this respect from cosmetics. The result is a perfectly natural and healthy young complexion. Mercerized wax, procurable at any drug store (one ounce is sufficient), is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

The correct principle in the treatment of wrinkles is to tighten the skin, which naturally firms out the lines. A face bath, remarkably effective in this direction, may be made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in 1/2 pt. witch hazel farm near here during a storm Sunday night.

A search is being made for the "Man of Mystery" and his automobile with whom she was seen talking on the street Saturday afternoon. A search of the neighborhood and the dragging of Pine lake nearly Tuesday failed to locate her body and it is the theory of the police that she was abducted by three strangers. Late Sunday night, a few minutes after she had left her bedroom clad only in a night dress and a pair of silk stockings, the hired man saw an automobile slowly pass on the road with lights dimmed. Tracks show that a machine had stopped a short distance down the road and tracks were found there.

The "Man of Mystery" may be the girl's foster father, P. A. Spore of Macey, Ind. The girl was seen talking with the man in an automobile Saturday afternoon after she had slipped away from her guardian. The same man was in an automobile which passed the family surrey Sunday afternoon and the two stared at each other, doubtless passing a signal. The girl took a Bible, a doll and two fancy bags with her.

WILL QUIT IF VILLA DOES, SAYS CARRANZA

It's Your Move, Says First Chief to Former Leader at Peace Conference.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 28.—Carranza will quit if Villa will. This, tersely, is the situation developed Tuesday with the submitting to the military conference at Aguas Calientes of the resignation of the "first chief" of the constitutionalists conditioned upon the agreement of the northern leader to retire to private life.

Carranza tendered his resignation solely on the understanding that the conference would take him in a position, by its acceptance or rejection, to act freely in a manner which would insure the prompt pacification of the country.

If his removal will hasten this end Gen. Carranza is only too willing, he says, to step out; but if this with-

HE IS WORTH TEN MILLION TO HARVARD

Prof. Hugo Munsterberg, the noted physiologist, who put the question to the Harvard corporation, "Am I worth $10,000,000 to Harvard?" The corporation evidently thinks he is worth that amount for it refused to accept his offered resignation. The whole affair grew out of the offer of Maj. Clarence Weiner of London, to leave Harvard $10,000,000 if Prof. Munsterberg was dismissed from the faculty. Weiner objects to Munsterberg because of his "unwarranted pro-German utterances."

drawal means the installation of Villa, he considers that it would be better that he remain where he is.

In the view of the first chief both he and Villa should step out, and leave the field clear for a "new deal." This leaves the next step squarely up to Villa.

WILL NOT VIOLATE MONROE DOCTRINE

Germany Will Not Seek Expansion in America, Says Count Von Bernstorff.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, when seen at the Ritz Carlton hotel Tuesday night said that if the United States wanted assurances that in the event of victory Germany would not seek expansion or colonization in North America, including Canada or South America, Germany would give them immediately.

"Germany," he said, "has not the faintest intention or desire to violate the spirit of the Monroe doctrine. I say this as emphatically and distinctly as I can, so that there may be no possible opportunity to mistake our attitude in the future."

The German ambassador said the discussion concerning the matter was the result of erroneous inference drawn from an interview he gave in Washington some time ago. His government's attitude in regard to expansion, he said, has already been laid before the United States government.

Indianapolis Man Said to Have Served

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 28.—A political sensation developed here Tuesday when suit was filed in superior court to mandate the board of Marion county commissioners to eliminate from the voting machine the name of Frank X. O'Brien as democratic candidate for judge of juvenile court and substituting therefor the name of Newton M. Taylor, the present judge.

It is charged that O'Brien's right name is John F. O'Brien and that he served a term in the workhouse at St. Louis for larceny, afterwards taking the name of Frank X. O'Brien, a reputable St. Louis attorney.

ROCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 28.—The bravest Spartan known to history or the most stoical Indian ever seen in the movies or wild west show has nothing on Nelson Wayne, a prominent farmer living near Rochester. He broke into the ranks of the world's greatest stoics Tuesday when he failed to say a word following the loss of a finger in a corn sheller. Even his wife, who was standing near, knew nothing of the accident until he showed her the injured member.
